The NFHS accident medical insurance policy is an excess insurance policy. Excess insurance pays after your primary and any other secondary insurance pays. If you do not have any primary insurance, the NFHS plan will step in as primary up to the policy maximum. You will need to submit bills from your medical providers and any Explanation of Benefits (EOB) statements from your primary and any secondary insurance carriers, along with the claim form. Keep copies of everything you send for your records. If you incur additional expenses, submit those with a copy of your original claim form.

Please be advised that the NFHS insurance plan is subject to a $250 deductible. This deductible may be reduced by amounts paid by you or other insurance in conjunction with this injury.

Mutual of Omaha requires a claim be filed within 30 days of injury and initial treatment for injury sought within 90 days of the injury.

Tips for Filing a Claim - Participant Accident

- Mutual of Omaha Special Risk Services is a medical excess policy which considers charges secondary to any major medical policies. We'll need your major medical EOBs to consider any claims.
- Please make sure the claim form is filled out completely including an official signature from the school/organization.
- You can find the policy number on the claim form. Provide this to all the providers who render services. They will need to bill us directly as secondary insurance by fax (402-351-4732) or mail. We cannot accept balance due statements that providers mail to the patient. We need the actual billing forms shown below UB04 (hospital bill) or HCFA1500 (physician bill) that has procedure, diagnosis, Tax ID and payment address for the provider.

- If any out of pocket expenses are paid, please send us proof of payment. Our normal process is to pay your remaining balance to the provider, however, if we receive proof of payment we will reimburse the member.
- Each bill we receive will be assigned a claim number and once processed you will receive an Explanation of Benefits to show how the claim was processed/paid.
- Call 1-800-524-2324 if you have additional questions.
- Options for Sending Information:
